Desert Conference Teams,

First off congratulations, your team is in!

You are receiving this email because I have received mixed messages whether teams have been notified by the league commissioner or not.

1. This memo was posted on the DC website CLICK
2. This list was posted on the DC Website for accepted teams CLICK
3. Link to the DC website CLICK

I don't have any further information other than what I see on their page. As you can see on the memo, there is instructions to not make travel plans yet.
