There currently is Saturday inventory from roughly 1PM or later.

There currently is Sunday inventory from roughly 1 PM or later.

Please keep in mind that in our matchmaking process we need your opponent to also be available and we will do our best to contact teams if possible to still make it happen for you. However there might not be a potential 2nd game that works for all.

Deadline to submit second request is noon on Sunday, 8/16. Then ASA will work to find you a match and let you know by Sunday PM (Time TBD) that it will work or not. We will make sure to let all that have submitted know.
